

Here's the cover letter:

[Date]

Dear Principal and Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my enthusiastic interest in the Y4-5 classroom teacher position at Insoll Avenue School. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident my expertise in inclusive teaching and curriculum adaptation will be a valuable asset to your school community.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting diverse learners, particularly students with special educational needs. Throughout my career, I have successfully developed and implemented individualized learning strategies for students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications further demonstrate my commitment to accessible, inclusive education.

As a registered teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring not only extensive classroom experience but also a comprehensive understanding of developmental learning approaches. My teaching philosophy centers on creating supportive, engaging environments where every student can thrive, regardless of their unique learning profile.

I am particularly drawn to Insoll Avenue School's reputation for educational excellence and commitment to inclusive practices. My experience in curriculum adaptation (CAPS, DCAPS) and behavior modification strategies aligns seamlessly with what I understand to be your school's educational approach.

My bilingual background in English and Afrikaans, combined with my specialized training, enables me to communicate effectively and empathetically with students, families, and colleagues. I am passionate about fostering a positive, nurturing classroom environment that celebrates individual strengths and supports holistic student development.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience can contribute to your school's mission. Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
henriettebeeslaar@gmail.com