

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the SENCO and structured literacy support position at Blenheim School. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive learning environments that support and empower students with diverse educational needs.

My professional background is specifically aligned with the requirements of this role. As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring extensive expertise in supporting students with special educational needs, including autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication strategies.

Throughout my career, I have developed a comprehensive approach to curriculum adaptation and learning support. My skills in behavior modification and early childhood development have consistently enabled me to design personalized learning pathways that maximize student potential. I pride myself on creating supportive, engaging classroom environments where every student can thrive, regardless of their individual challenges.

My professional philosophy centers on recognizing and nurturing each student's unique strengths. I am particularly skilled at developing targeted interventions, implementing adaptive learning strategies, and collaborating with multidisciplinary teams to ensure holistic student support.

Blenheim School's commitment to inclusive education resonates deeply with my professional values. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise and passion to your educational community, supporting students in achieving their fullest potential.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience align with your school's goals. Thank you for considering my application.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
