

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Principal and Selection Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Teacher-in-charge of Learning Support position at Gisborne Girls' High School. With 18+ years of extensive experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to contribute significantly to your school's inclusive learning environment.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting students with diverse learning needs. Throughout my career, I have developed specialized expertise in working with students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My approach combines comprehensive curriculum adaptation, targeted behavior modification strategies, and individualised learning support to help students achieve their full potential.

My qualifications align perfectly with this role. As a fully registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring both academic training and practical skills. My additional certifications in Makaton and Sign Language (Modules 1 & 2) further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication and supporting students with diverse learning requirements.

I am particularly drawn to Gisborne Girls' High School's reputation for compassionate, student-centered education. My experience in creating adaptive learning environments and my passion for empowering students with special educational needs make me an ideal candidate for this position.

I look forward to discussing how my skills and experience can contribute to your school's learning support program. Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
