Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the ELL teacher and junior literacy position at Garin College. With over 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident that my expertise and passion for inclusive education make me an ideal candidate for this role.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting diverse learners, with extensive experience working with students with special educational needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. Throughout my career, I have developed specialized skills in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and creating inclusive learning environments that support every student's unique learning journey.

As a registered teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and additional certifications in Makaton and Sign Language, I bring a comprehensive and nuanced approach to language and literacy education. My background in special education has equipped me with advanced strategies for differentiated instruction and individualized learning support.

Garin College's commitment to inclusive education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am particularly excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise in ELL and junior literacy, leveraging my multilingual background and specialized teaching techniques to support student learning and growth.

My passion for education extends beyond traditional teaching methods. I pride myself on creating dynamic, engaging learning environments that celebrate diversity and empower students to reach their full potential. My experience in curriculum adaptation and learning support would be valuable assets to your school community.

I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience align with Garin College's educational objectives.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
