

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Principal and Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Year 7-8 teaching position at Poroutawhao School. With 18+ years of experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to contribute meaningfully to your educational community.

My professional background is deeply rooted in inclusive education, with extensive expertise supporting students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, combined with New Zealand Teaching Registration, equips me with both theoretical knowledge and practical skills to create adaptive, supportive learning environments.

Throughout my career, I have developed specialized strategies for curriculum adaptation and behavior modification, ensuring every student can access and engage with educational content. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications further demonstrate my commitment to communication accessibility and inclusive pedagogical practices.

Poroutawhao School's reputation for nurturing individual student potential resonates strongly with my educational philosophy. I am particularly excited about the opportunity to bring my multilingual background and comprehensive understanding of special educational needs to your learning community.

My approach prioritizes creating supportive, engaging classroom environments where every student feels valued, understood, and empowered to learn. I am adept at developing individualized learning strategies and collaborate effectively with support teams, parents, and specialists.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience align with Poroutawhao School's educational objectives. Thank you for considering my application.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
