

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my keen interest in the Learning Support Coordinator position at Wesley College. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident that my expertise and passion for inclusive education align perfectly with your school's commitment to supporting diverse learning needs.

My professional background is specifically tailored to learning support, with extensive experience working with students with diverse abilities, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education (Foundation Phase) and current NZ Teaching Registration provide a robust educational foundation, while my specialized certifications in Makaton and Sign Language further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication strategies.

Throughout my career, I have developed a comprehensive approach to curriculum adaptation and behaviour modification that prioritizes individual student strengths and potential. My experience involves creating personalized learning plans, implementing targeted intervention strategies, and collaborating closely with multidisciplinary teams to ensure holistic student support.

Wesley College's reputation for inclusive and supportive education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am particularly excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills in developing innovative learning support frameworks that empower students with diverse educational needs.

My multilingual background and extensive special education experience would allow me to bring a unique, compassionate perspective to your learning support team. I am eager to discuss how my qualifications and passion can contribute to Wesley College's educational excellence.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to further discuss how I can support your students' learning journey.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
