

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Music Teacher position at Queen Elizabeth College. With over 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your school's dynamic learning environment.

My extensive background in inclusive education, particularly working with students with special educational needs, has equipped me with unique skills in curriculum adaptation and differentiated instruction. Throughout my career, I have successfully supported students with diverse learning profiles, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications have been instrumental in creating inclusive, supportive classroom environments where every student can thrive.

Holding a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, I bring a comprehensive understanding of educational best practices and a commitment to student-centered learning. My experience has taught me that music can be a powerful tool for communication, emotional expression, and skill development, especially for students with diverse learning needs.

I am particularly passionate about using music as a therapeutic and educational medium, leveraging my skills in behavior modification and early childhood development to create engaging, accessible learning experiences. My multilingual background in English and Afrikaans further enhances my ability to communicate effectively and connect with students from various backgrounds.

Queen Elizabeth College's reputation for inclusive and innovative education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am eager to bring my specialized skills and enthusiastic approach to your music program, contributing to the holistic development of your students.

I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my experience and passion align with your school's vision.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
