

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Specialist Teacher Outreach Service position at Kimi Ora School. With over 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about supporting learners with diverse educational needs and creating inclusive learning environments.

My extensive background in working with students with special educational needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, aligns perfectly with the requirements of this role. My qualifications, including a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, demonstrate my commitment to professional excellence and specialized educational support.

Throughout my career, I have developed a comprehensive skill set in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and individualized learning strategies. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications (Modules 1 & 2) further enhance my ability to communicate and support students with complex communication needs. I pride myself on creating supportive, engaging, and adaptive learning experiences that empower students to reach their full potential.

The opportunity to contribute to Kimi Ora School's outreach service is particularly exciting. I am deeply committed to inclusive education and believe in the transformative power of specialized, compassionate teaching approaches. My bilingual background in English and Afrikaans, combined with my extensive experience in special education, positions me as an ideal candidate for this role.

I am enthusiastic about the potential to bring my expertise to your team and contribute to the meaningful work of supporting students with special educational needs. I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience align with Kimi Ora School's mission.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
