Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the 0.32 Learning Support Co-ordinator position at Matapu School. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident that my expertise and passion for inclusive education make me an ideal candidate for this role.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting students with diverse learning needs, including extensive experience working with children with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. As a fully registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring a comprehensive understanding of curriculum adaptation and individualised learning strategies.

My professional qualifications extend beyond traditional teaching credentials. I hold Makaton Certification and Sign Language (Module 1 & 2) credentials, which enable me to communicate effectively with students who have complex communication needs. Throughout my career, I have successfully developed and implemented tailored learning support programs that promote student engagement, independence, and academic growth.

Matapu School's commitment to inclusive education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am passionate about creating supportive, adaptive learning environments where every student can thrive, regardless of their individual challenges. My approach combines evidence-based pedagogical practices with compassionate, student-centered support.

I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills and experience to your learning support team. I am confident that my background in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and special educational needs will be valuable assets to Matapu School.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to discussing how my expertise aligns with your school's vision.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
