Dear Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Junior School Teacher position at Coroglen School, where I believe my extensive experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education will make a meaningful contribution to your learning community.

With 18+ years of dedicated teaching experience, I bring a comprehensive background in inclusive education and specialized support for students with diverse learning needs. My expertise spans working with children with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, enabling me to create adaptive, supportive learning environments that nurture every child's potential.

My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, coupled with full New Zealand Teaching Registration, demonstrates my commitment to professional excellence. Additionally, my Makaton and Sign Language certifications reflect my passion for ensuring all students can effectively communicate and engage with their learning.

Throughout my career, I have developed robust skills in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and individualized learning support. My approach focuses on recognizing each student's unique strengths and creating inclusive, engaging classroom experiences that promote both academic and personal growth.

I am particularly drawn to Coroglen School's reputation for supportive, student-centered education. My background in early childhood development and special educational needs aligns perfectly with creating dynamic, responsive learning environments for Year 1-2 students.

I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills, experience, and genuine passion for teaching to your school community. I would welcome the chance to discuss how my background could support your educational goals.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
