

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Learning Support Co-ordinator position at Al-Madinah School. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments for students with diverse educational needs.

My professional background includes extensive expertise working with students with special educational needs, specifically supporting learners with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring a comprehensive understanding of curriculum adaptation and individualised learning strategies.

Throughout my career, I have developed a holistic approach to learning support, specialising in:

- Designing personalised educational interventions

- Implementing behaviour modification techniques

- Creating inclusive classroom environments

- Supporting students with complex learning requirements

My additional qualifications, including Makaton Certification and Sign Language modules, demonstrate my commitment to communication accessibility and inclusive educational practices. I am skilled in developing comprehensive support plans that enable students to reach their full potential.

Al-Madinah School's commitment to inclusive education aligns perfectly with my professional philosophy. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise and support your school's learning support goals. My multilingual background and extensive experience make me well-positioned to provide comprehensive, empathetic educational support.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience can contribute to your school's learning support program. Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar

henriettebeeslaar@gmail.com