

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Scale A teaching position at David Henry School. With over 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your educational community.

My professional background is deeply rooted in inclusive education, with specialized skills in supporting students with diverse learning needs. Throughout my career, I have developed comprehensive strategies for teaching students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My approach focuses on individualized learning, curriculum adaptation, and creating supportive, engaging classroom environments that enable every student to reach their full potential.

Holding a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, I bring both academic qualifications and practical experience to the role. My additional certifications in Makaton and Sign Language further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication and supporting students with varied learning and communication requirements.

My teaching philosophy centers on recognizing each student's unique strengths and creating tailored learning experiences that promote both academic and personal growth. I am particularly skilled in behavior modification techniques and early childhood development strategies that support holistic student development.

I am passionate about creating an inclusive, supportive, and dynamic learning environment where every student can thrive. My multilingual background and extensive experience in special educational needs make me well-equipped to support diverse learning requirements.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience align with David Henry School's educational goals. Thank you for considering my application.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
