Dear Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my enthusiastic application for the Y7-8 kaiako Maori position at Sir Edmund Hillary Collegiate Middle School. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am deeply committed to creating inclusive, supportive learning environments that empower every student to achieve their full potential.

My extensive background in special educational needs, including supporting students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, has equipped me with a nuanced understanding of differentiated instruction and adaptive curriculum strategies. My NZ Teaching Registration and Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, complemented by specialized certifications in Makaton and Sign Language, demonstrate my comprehensive approach to inclusive education.

Throughout my career, I have developed a strong passion for supporting diverse learners, with a particular focus on creating learning experiences that are both engaging and accessible. My experience in curriculum adaptation and behavior modification has consistently enabled students to overcome learning challenges and develop confidence in their academic abilities.

Sir Edmund Hillary Collegiate Middle School's commitment to holistic education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am particularly excited about the opportunity to contribute my multilingual skills and specialized teaching expertise to your dynamic learning community.

My combination of extensive teaching experience, specialized qualifications, and genuine commitment to student success makes me an ideal candidate for this role. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my background aligns with your school's educational vision.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
