Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Gifted Education Teacher position at One Day School Rotorua. With 18+ years of extensive experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to your expanding educational program.

My professional background is particularly well-aligned with the unique needs of diverse learners. Throughout my career, I have developed specialized expertise in supporting students with diverse learning profiles, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My approach focuses on inclusive education and personalized curriculum adaptation, ensuring each student can unlock their full potential.

As a fully registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring not only academic qualifications but also practical, compassionate teaching strategies. My additional certifications in Makaton and Sign Language demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication and supporting students with varied learning needs.

One Day School Rotorua's commitment to expanding educational opportunities resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am particularly passionate about gifted education and creating learning environments that challenge and inspire exceptional students. My experience in curriculum modification and individualized learning support makes me well-suited to support your school's vision.

My multilingual background and extensive experience in special educational needs position me as a unique candidate who can bring creativity, understanding, and professional expertise to your team. I am eager to discuss how my skills could contribute to your school's educational objectives.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to further discuss how I can support One Day School Rotorua's educational mission.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
