

Here's the cover letter tailored to the requirements:

Dear Principal and Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Scale A bilingual Maori kaiako position at Papatoetoe South School. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments that empower every child to reach their full potential.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting students with diverse learning needs, particularly those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. Throughout my career, I have developed specialized skills in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and individualized learning support. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication strategies.

As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I am well-versed in the New Zealand curriculum and passionate about bicultural education. My multicultural background and language skills (English and Afrikaans) enable me to connect with students from diverse backgrounds, fostering a welcoming and respectful classroom environment.

I am particularly drawn to Papatoetoe South School's commitment to bilingual education and inclusive learning. My experience in adapting curricula and supporting students with varied learning needs aligns perfectly with the school's educational philosophy. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise and collaborate with your dedicated team.

My approach combines professional knowledge with genuine care, ensuring that each student feels valued, supported, and capable of achieving their personal best. I am eager to bring my extensive experience, specialized skills, and heartfelt dedication to your school community.

I look forward to discussing how my background and passion can contribute to Papatoetoe South School's learning environment.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
