

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Literacy Teacher position at Christ's College, covering the period from 28 April to 3 July 2026. With 18+ years of extensive experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to provide exceptional literacy instruction and support to your students.

My professional background is specifically aligned with creating inclusive, adaptive learning environments. Holding a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, I bring a comprehensive skill set in curriculum adaptation and specialized educational support. My expertise spans working with students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities.

My professional approach emphasizes individualized learning strategies, leveraging my Makaton and Sign Language certifications to ensure comprehensive communication and engagement. I excel in developing tailored educational plans that maximize student potential and promote inclusive learning experiences.

Throughout my career, I have consistently demonstrated a commitment to creating supportive, dynamic classroom environments that nurture students' literacy skills and overall educational development. My experience in curriculum modification and behavior modification strategies enables me to effectively address diverse learning requirements.

I am particularly excited about the opportunity to contribute to Christ's College's educational community, bringing my multilingual background and extensive special education experience to support your students' literacy journey. My passion for teaching and dedication to inclusive education align perfectly with the goals of this short-term teaching position.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience can contribute to your school's literacy program. Thank you for considering my application.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
