Dear Hiring Manager

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Kaiako kura teina - Tupuranga Reo position at TKKM o Taumarere. With over 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments that empower every child to reach their full potential.

My professional background is specifically tailored to supporting diverse learners, with extensive experience working with students with special educational needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring both professional qualifications and a deep commitment to adaptive, student-centered teaching approaches.

My expertise extends beyond traditional teaching methods. My Makaton certification and Sign Language qualifications (Modules 1 & 2) demonstrate my commitment to communication accessibility and inclusive educational practices. I have a proven track record of developing personalized learning strategies that accommodate individual student needs, utilizing curriculum adaptation techniques to ensure meaningful engagement and progress.

I am particularly drawn to TKKM o Taumarere's commitment to holistic, culturally responsive education. My multilingual background and experience in diverse educational settings have prepared me to contribute effectively to your school's learning community.

My approach combines professional expertise with genuine care, believing that every child deserves a supportive, nurturing educational environment that recognizes their unique strengths and potential.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience align with your school's vision and the Kaiako kura teina role.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
