Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Scale A teacher position at Coley Street School, as advertised on 01 December 2025. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to your inclusive learning environment.

My extensive background in supporting students with diverse learning needs - including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities - aligns perfectly with the comprehensive teaching role you are seeking to fill. I hold a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, full NZ Teaching Registration, and specialized certifications in Makaton and Sign Language, which enable me to create adaptive and supportive learning experiences for all students.

Currently based in South Africa, I am working closely with a licensed immigration advisor to ensure a smooth relocation to New Zealand within six weeks of a potential job offer. My international experience and commitment to inclusive education make me a unique candidate who can bring global perspectives to your school community.

My teaching philosophy centers on creating nurturing, differentiated learning environments where every student can thrive. My Makaton and Sign Language qualifications, combined with extensive experience in curriculum adaptation, allow me to support learners with varied communication and learning needs effectively.

I am particularly drawn to Coley Street School's commitment to comprehensive, holistic education across multiple learning areas. My expertise in English, health and physical education, mathematics, and social sciences would be valuable assets to your teaching team.

I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience can contribute to your school's educational mission.

Kind regards,
