Dear Principal/Hiring Committee,

I am writing to apply for the Scale A teaching position at your school, bringing 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education. My comprehensive background in inclusive education and extensive experience working with diverse learning needs makes me an ideal candidate for this role.

Throughout my teaching career, I have developed a deep expertise in supporting students with special educational needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My qualifications, including a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, demonstrate my professional commitment to exceptional educational practice.

My specialist skills include curriculum adaptation, behaviour modification, and creating supportive learning environments that enable every student to thrive. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further underscore my commitment to inclusive communication strategies. I am passionate about designing responsive learning experiences that accommodate individual student strengths and challenges.

With 18+ years of experience, I have refined my ability to create engaging, differentiated learning environments that support academic and social-emotional development. My approach emphasizes individual student potential, collaborative learning, and evidence-based pedagogical strategies.

I am particularly excited about the opportunity to contribute to your school's learning community and continue my professional journey in New Zealand's dynamic educational landscape. My multicultural background and bilingual skills (English and Afrikaans) enable me to connect effectively with diverse student populations.

I look forward to discussing how my experience and passion for inclusive education can contribute to your school's success.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
