Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my enthusiastic interest in the Primary Teacher position at Vanguard School. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident that my skills and passion for inclusive education align perfectly with your school's needs.

My extensive background specializes in supporting students with diverse learning requirements, particularly those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. Through my comprehensive qualifications, including a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and current NZ Teaching Registration, I bring a robust set of skills focused on curriculum adaptation and individualized learning strategies.

Currently based in South Africa, I am actively preparing for relocation to New Zealand and am working closely with a licensed immigration advisor to ensure a smooth professional transition. I am available to relocate within six weeks of job confirmation, bringing my Makaton and Sign Language certifications that further enhance communication support for students with special needs.

My teaching philosophy centers on creating inclusive, supportive learning environments where every student can thrive. My experience with behavior modification, early childhood development, and personalized learning approaches has consistently enabled students to reach their full potential, regardless of their individual challenges.

Vanguard School's commitment to holistic education resonates deeply with my professional values. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise, multilingual capabilities, and passionate approach to your educational community.

I look forward to discussing how my skills and experience can contribute to your school's mission of exceptional, inclusive education.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
