

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Junior Classroom Teacher position at St Anthony's School in Seatoun. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident my expertise aligns perfectly with your school's commitment to inclusive, supportive learning environments.

My background encompasses comprehensive experience working with diverse learners, particularly students with special educational needs. Throughout my career, I have successfully supported students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, implementing tailored learning strategies that promote individual growth and academic success. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications further demonstrate my commitment to adaptive, inclusive teaching methodologies.

As a fully registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring not only extensive international teaching experience but also a deep understanding of curriculum adaptation and differentiated instruction. My approach focuses on creating supportive, engaging classroom environments where every student can thrive and reach their full potential.

St Anthony's reputation for nurturing holistic student development resonates strongly with my educational philosophy. I am excited by the opportunity to contribute my skills in curriculum design, behavior modification, and learning support to your school community.

My multilingual background and experience with diverse learning needs position me as a versatile and compassionate educator ready to make a meaningful impact at St Anthony's School.

I look forward to discussing how my experience and passion for education can contribute to your team.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
