Dear Hiring Manager

I am writing to apply for the Scale A teaching position at Nuhaka School, as advertised on 25 November 2025. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to your school's inclusive learning environment.

My professional background is specifically aligned with the diverse educational needs outlined in your job description. As a Bachelor of Education graduate with full New Zealand Teaching Registration, I bring extensive expertise in supporting students with special educational needs, including autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further enhance my ability to create truly inclusive classroom experiences.

Having worked extensively with diverse learning populations, I understand the critical importance of curriculum adaptation and personalized learning strategies. My experience spans comprehensive approaches including behavior modification, learning support, and developmentally appropriate pedagogical techniques. My multicultural background and bilingual skills (English and Afrikaans) also enable me to connect effectively with students from varied backgrounds.

I am currently based in South Africa and am working closely with a licensed immigration advisor to ensure a smooth transition to New Zealand. I am fully prepared to relocate within six weeks of formal job offer and am committed to bringing my specialized skills to your educational community.

Nuhaka School's commitment to comprehensive, holistic education deeply resonates with my professional philosophy. I am particularly enthusiastic about contributing to your comprehensive curriculum spanning health, physical education, languages, mathematics, science, and cultural studies.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to discussing how my qualifications align with Nuhaka School's educational vision.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
