

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Learning Support Coordinator position at Somerfield Te Kura Wairepo. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive learning environments that support every student's unique educational journey.

My professional background is specifically tailored to this role, with extensive expertise in supporting students with diverse learning needs, including autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, combined with my current New Zealand Teaching Registration, provides a solid foundation for effective learning support coordination.

Throughout my career, I have developed specialized skills in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and individualized learning strategies. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications (Modules 1 & 2) further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication and supporting students with varied communication needs.

I am particularly drawn to Somerfield Te Kura Wairepo's commitment to inclusive education and believe my professional experience aligns perfectly with your school's approach to supporting diverse learners. My multilingual background and deep understanding of early childhood development would be valuable assets in creating supportive, adaptive learning environments.

My approach focuses on identifying individual student strengths, developing targeted support strategies, and collaborating closely with teachers, families, and support networks to ensure comprehensive educational support.

I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your school community and would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience can support your learning support objectives.

Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
