Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Y7-8 Learning Support Co-ordinator position at Orewa College. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments for students with diverse educational needs.

My professional background is specifically aligned with the requirements of this role. As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and specialized certifications in Makaton and Sign Language, I bring a comprehensive skill set in supporting students with varied learning challenges. Throughout my career, I have developed extensive expertise in working with students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, consistently demonstrating my commitment to personalized, adaptive educational strategies.

My approach to learning support is holistic and student-centered. I excel in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and developing individualized education plans that empower students to reach their full potential. My Makaton and Sign Language qualifications further enhance my ability to communicate effectively with students who have diverse communication needs.

Orewa College's reputation for inclusive education and commitment to student support strongly resonates with my professional philosophy. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills and experience to your learning support team, helping students overcome barriers and achieve academic and personal success.

I am confident that my background, expertise, and genuine passion for inclusive education make me an ideal candidate for this role. I look forward to discussing how my skills can contribute to Orewa College's supportive learning environment.

Kind regards,
Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
