

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Y4-6 teacher position at New Lynn School. With over 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident that my expertise and passion for inclusive education make me an exceptional candidate for this role.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting diverse learners, particularly students with special educational needs. Throughout my career, I have successfully worked with students diagnosed with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, developing individualized learning strategies that promote academic and social growth. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication and supporting all students' learning needs.

Holding a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, I bring a comprehensive understanding of curriculum adaptation and developmentally appropriate teaching practices. My experience in behavior modification and early childhood development has equipped me with versatile skills to create engaging, supportive learning environments where every student can thrive.

I am particularly drawn to New Lynn School's reputation for inclusive and innovative education. My background in curriculum adaptation (CAPS, DCAPS) and my multilingual capabilities in English and Afrikaans enable me to bring a unique, multicultural perspective to the classroom.

I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your senior team and support the continued growth and development of your students. My professional philosophy centers on creating supportive, adaptive learning experiences that empower every child to reach their full potential.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience align with New Lynn School's educational objectives.

Kind regards,
