

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my enthusiastic interest in the Y7 and 8 teaching position at William Colenso College. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident that my expertise and passion for inclusive education align perfectly with your school's educational philosophy.

My professional background is distinguished by comprehensive experience working with diverse learner needs, particularly students with special educational requirements. Throughout my career, I have developed profound skills in supporting students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, consistently creating adaptive and supportive learning environments that enable every student to thrive academically and personally.

Holding a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, I bring both theoretical knowledge and practical skills to the classroom. My additional certifications in Makaton and Sign Language (Modules 1 & 2) further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication and ensuring all students can access learning opportunities.

My teaching approach emphasizes curriculum adaptation, individualized learning strategies, and positive behavior modification techniques. I am particularly skilled at developing innovative, engaging lesson plans that accommodate different learning styles and support students' holistic development.

William Colenso College's reputation for educational excellence and commitment to student growth strongly resonates with my professional values. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your middle school team and support your students' learning journey.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience could benefit your school community. Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
