

Here's the cover letter for Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar:

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Y3 or Y4 classroom teacher position at Coatesville School. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your school's learning community.

My professional journey has been deeply focused on inclusive education, with extensive experience supporting students with diverse learning needs including autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, combined with my current NZ Teaching Registration, positions me to deliver high-quality, adaptive learning experiences that support every student's unique potential.

Throughout my career, I have developed specialized skills in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and individualized learning support. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to creating accessible and supportive learning environments for all students. I am particularly passionate about designing inclusive classroom strategies that enable every child to engage, learn, and thrive.

Coatesville School's reputation for educational excellence and commitment to holistic student development deeply resonates with my professional philosophy. I am keen to bring my multilingual background and extensive special education experience to your team, contributing to a supportive and dynamic learning environment.

I am confident that my skills, experience, and genuine passion for education make me an ideal candidate for this position. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how I can contribute to Coatesville School's continued success.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
