Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Kaiako - team leader position at Te Aho o Te Kura Pounamu. With over 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to contribute meaningfully to your educational team.

My professional journey has been deeply focused on inclusive education and supporting students with diverse learning needs. Throughout my career, I have developed comprehensive expertise in working with students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications have further enhanced my ability to communicate effectively with students who have varied communication requirements.

As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring not only extensive theoretical knowledge but also practical, compassionate teaching strategies. My experience in curriculum adaptation and behavior modification has consistently enabled me to create supportive, engaging learning environments where every student can thrive.

My commitment to special educational needs extends beyond traditional teaching methods. I am passionate about developing individualized learning approaches that recognize and celebrate each student's unique potential. My multicultural background and multilingual skills also allow me to connect with students from diverse backgrounds.

I am particularly excited about the opportunity to contribute to Te Aho o Te Kura Pounamu as a team leader, where I can combine my technical expertise with my passion for nurturing inclusive, supportive educational experiences.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to discussing how my skills and experience align with your school's vision.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
