

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Special Educational Needs Coordinator (SENCo) position at Takanini School. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident that my expertise and passion for inclusive education make me an ideal candidate for this role.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting students with diverse learning needs, including extensive experience working with children with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. Throughout my career, I have developed a comprehensive approach to curriculum adaptation and learning support that prioritizes individual student potential and holistic development.

As a registered teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and additional certifications in Makaton and Sign Language, I bring a multifaceted skill set to supporting students with special educational needs. My approach combines evidence-based behavioral modification strategies with compassionate, student-centered teaching methodologies.

My professional philosophy centers on creating inclusive learning environments where every student can thrive. I have successfully developed and implemented individualized education plans, collaborated with multidisciplinary teams, and supported students in achieving their academic and personal development goals.

Takanini School's commitment to inclusive education resonates deeply with my professional values. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your school's supportive and dynamic learning community.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience align with your school's vision and the SENCo role. Thank you for considering my application.

Kind regards,
