

Here's the professional cover letter for Henriette Beeslaar:

Dear Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Learning Support Teacher position at St Peter's College. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments for students with diverse educational needs.

My professional background is specifically aligned with your requirements. As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring extensive expertise in supporting students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication and holistic student support.

Throughout my career, I have developed comprehensive strategies for curriculum adaptation, behaviour modification, and personalised learning approaches. My experience has consistently focused on empowering students with special educational needs to achieve their maximum potential, using evidence-based interventions and compassionate, student-centred teaching methods.

St Peter's College's reputation for educational excellence and commitment to inclusive learning strongly resonates with my professional philosophy. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills, bringing a multilingual and multicultural perspective to your learning support team.

My qualifications, combined with my deep understanding of early childhood development and special educational needs, position me as an ideal candidate for this role. I am eager to discuss how my experience can contribute to your school's supportive and innovative learning environment.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to further discuss how I can support St Peter's College's educational mission.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
