

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Senior School Team Leader position for Years 5-6 at Pigeon Mountain School. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident that my expertise in inclusive education and curriculum adaptation makes me an ideal candidate for this role.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting diverse learners, with extensive experience working with students with special educational needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, combined with my current New Zealand Teaching Registration, provides a solid foundation for delivering high-quality, inclusive educational experiences.

Throughout my career, I have developed a comprehensive approach to learning support that emphasizes individual student strengths and potential. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to communication accessibility and inclusive teaching practices. I excel in creating adaptive learning environments that support every student's unique learning journey.

Pigeon Mountain School's reputation for educational excellence and commitment to holistic student development particularly resonates with me. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills in curriculum design, behavior modification, and team leadership to support your school's educational goals.

My multicultural background and bilingual capabilities (English and Afrikaans) have equipped me with strong communication skills and a flexible, empathetic teaching approach. I am passionate about creating engaging, supportive learning experiences that empower students to reach their full potential.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my experience and skills align with Pigeon Mountain School's vision. Thank you for considering my application.

Kind regards,
