

Here's the cover letter for Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar:

Dear Principal and Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Y4-8 teacher position at Tarras School. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to contribute meaningfully to your school's learning environment.

My professional journey has been deeply committed to inclusive education, with extensive expertise supporting students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, combined with my current New Zealand Teaching Registration, provides a robust foundation for delivering high-quality, adaptive educational experiences.

Throughout my career, I have developed specialised skills in curriculum adaptation, behaviour modification, and personalised learning strategies. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication and ensuring every student can fully participate in their learning journey.

Tarras School's reputation for supporting holistic student development resonates strongly with my educational philosophy. I am passionate about creating engaging, supportive classroom environments where every student can thrive, regardless of their individual learning profile. My approach emphasises strengths-based learning, individual potential, and building meaningful connections with students.

My multicultural background and bilingual capabilities (English and Afrikaans) enable me to connect with diverse student populations and bring a nuanced, empathetic approach to teaching. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to Tarras School's learning community and continue my mission of empowering students.

I look forward to discussing how my skills and experience align with your school's vision.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
