Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Teacher position for high health needs at Central Regional Health School in Horowhenua. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments for students with diverse educational requirements.

My professional background is specifically aligned with supporting students with complex learning and health needs. Throughout my career, I have developed comprehensive expertise in working with students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications (Modules 1 & 2) further demonstrate my commitment to adaptive, communication-focused teaching strategies.

As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring a robust understanding of curriculum adaptation and individualized learning approaches. My experience in behavior modification and early childhood development has consistently enabled me to design tailored educational experiences that support each student's unique potential.

Central Regional Health School's mission of providing specialized educational support resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am particularly excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills in creating responsive, compassionate learning environments that prioritize student well-being and academic growth.

My bilingual capabilities in English and Afrikaans, combined with my extensive special education background, position me as an ideal candidate for this role. I am eager to discuss how my experience and passion can contribute to your school's educational objectives.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to further discuss how I can support your students.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
