

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Kaiako Y5 and 6 position at Miramar Central School. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your dynamic educational community.

My professional background is specifically aligned with creating inclusive, supportive learning environments for diverse student needs. Throughout my career, I have specialized in supporting students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, developing comprehensive, individualized learning strategies that enable every child to reach their full potential. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication and accessible education.

As a fully registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring not only extensive international experience but also a deep understanding of adaptive curriculum delivery. My approach emphasizes personalized learning, behavior modification, and creating supportive classroom environments that celebrate each student's unique strengths.

Miramar Central School's reputation for educational excellence and commitment to inclusive learning strongly resonates with my professional philosophy. I am particularly drawn to your school's approach to supporting diverse learners and am eager to contribute my skills in curriculum adaptation and special educational support.

My multilingual background and extensive experience in differentiated instruction position me uniquely to support your Y5 and 6 students' academic and personal growth. I am passionate about creating engaging, supportive learning experiences that challenge and inspire young learners.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience can contribute to your school's educational mission.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
