

Dear Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Primary Teacher position at Ashburton Christian School. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your school's inclusive learning environment.

My professional background is uniquely positioned to support diverse learner needs. Throughout my career, I have specialized in working with students with special educational needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My comprehensive approach combines evidence-based teaching strategies with genuine compassion, ensuring that every student can access meaningful educational experiences.

As a fully registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring both professional qualifications and practical expertise to the classroom. My additional certifications in Makaton and Sign Language further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication and supporting students with varied learning requirements.

I am particularly drawn to Ashburton Christian School's commitment to holistic education. My experience in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and learning support aligns seamlessly with what I understand to be your educational philosophy. My multilingual background and skills in creating adaptive learning environments would be valuable assets to your team.

My approach centers on recognizing each student's unique potential, designing personalized learning pathways, and fostering a supportive, nurturing classroom culture. I am passionate about helping students develop not just academic skills, but also social-emotional competencies and self-confidence.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my background and skills could contribute to your school's mission. Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
