

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the classroom teacher positions currently available at Orewa Beach School. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your educational community.

My professional background is deeply rooted in inclusive education, with specialized skills in supporting students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, coupled with my current New Zealand Teaching Registration, positions me to make an immediate and meaningful impact in your school.

Throughout my career, I have developed a comprehensive approach to curriculum adaptation and learning support. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language training (Modules 1 & 2) enable me to communicate effectively with students who have varied communication requirements. I pride myself on creating inclusive, supportive classroom environments where every student can thrive and reach their full potential.

My extensive experience has equipped me with robust skills in behavior modification, early childhood development, and personalized learning strategies. I am particularly passionate about designing educational experiences that are engaging, supportive, and tailored to individual student needs.

Orewa Beach School's commitment to holistic education and inclusive practices resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am eager to bring my multilingual capabilities (English and Afrikaans) and extensive special education background to your team.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience align with your school's educational goals. Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
