

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Kaiako Kura Kaupapa Maori: Tau 4 position at TKKM o Manurewa. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments that empower every student to thrive.

My professional background is deeply aligned with the holistic educational approach of Kura Kaupapa Maori. Throughout my career, I have specialized in supporting learners with diverse educational needs, including students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My comprehensive understanding of curriculum adaptation and behavior modification strategies enables me to design personalized learning experiences that celebrate each student's unique potential.

Holding a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, I bring both academic preparation and practical expertise to my teaching practice. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication and ensuring all students can fully participate in their learning journey.

I am particularly drawn to TKKM o Manurewa's commitment to culturally responsive education. My multicultural background and experience in adaptive learning strategies would complement your school's mission of nurturing confident, capable learners who are grounded in their cultural identity.

I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills, passion, and extensive experience to your educational community. I would welcome the chance to discuss how my background aligns with your school's vision and the specific needs of Tau 4 students.

Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
