

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Principal and Hiring Committee,

I am writing to apply for the New Entrant Teacher position at Silverstream School, and I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my extensive experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education to your learning community.

With over 18 years of dedicated teaching experience, I bring a comprehensive background in supporting diverse learners, particularly those with special educational needs. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, combined with my NZ Teaching Registration, positions me as a highly qualified and adaptable educator committed to inclusive, responsive teaching practices.

My professional expertise spans working with students with diverse learning profiles, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. I have developed specialized skills in curriculum adaptation, individualized learning strategies, and behavior modification that enable every child to access meaningful educational experiences. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to communication accessibility and inclusive educational approaches.

Silverstream School's reputation for nurturing young learners aligns perfectly with my teaching philosophy. I am passionate about creating supportive, engaging learning environments where every child can develop foundational skills with confidence and joy. My approach emphasizes holistic development, recognizing each child's unique potential and learning journey.

I am confident that my extensive background, specialized certifications, and genuine commitment to early childhood education make me an ideal candidate for this role. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience can contribute to your school's educational mission.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
