

Here's the cover letter for Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar:

Dear Principal and Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the junior/middle primary teaching position at Ngakuru School. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your educational community.

My professional background is distinguished by comprehensive experience supporting students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, combined with my current NZ Teaching Registration, positions me uniquely to deliver inclusive, adaptive, and compassionate educational experiences.

Throughout my career, I have developed exceptional skills in curriculum adaptation, learning support, and behavior modification. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications (Modules 1 & 2) further demonstrate my commitment to creating accessible learning environments for all students. I pride myself on designing differentiated learning strategies that empower each child to reach their full potential.

Ngakuru School's reputation for inclusive and student-centered education deeply resonates with my professional philosophy. I am passionate about creating supportive, engaging classrooms where every learner feels valued and capable of success. My multilingual background and extensive special education experience would allow me to bring a nuanced, empathetic approach to your school community.

I am enthusiastic about the possibility of contributing my skills and experience to Ngakuru School and would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my background aligns with your educational objectives.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
