With over 18 years of dedicated teaching experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I bring a wealth of expertise in inclusive education and curriculum adaptation. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, combined with my current NZ Teaching Registration, has equipped me with comprehensive skills to support diverse learning needs effectively.

Throughout my career, I have developed specialized experience working with students with diverse abilities, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication strategies, ensuring every student can access and engage with learning.

My approach to teaching is deeply student-centered, focusing on individualized learning plans, behavior modification techniques, and creating supportive classroom environments that celebrate each student's unique potential. I am passionate about developing adaptive teaching strategies that accommodate different learning styles and abilities.

Pirongia School's reputation for fostering inclusive, engaging learning experiences resonates strongly with my professional philosophy. I am particularly enthusiastic about joining the Kahikatea Team and contributing to your school's dynamic educational approach.
