Dear Principal and Hiring Committee,

I am writing to apply for the Scale A classroom teaching positions at Good Shepherd School, with a passionate commitment to inclusive, supportive education for all learners.

With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I bring a wealth of expertise in supporting diverse learners, particularly those with special educational needs. My professional background includes comprehensive experience working with students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, consistently demonstrating my ability to create adaptive, nurturing learning environments.

My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, combined with my current New Zealand Teaching Registration, positions me strongly to contribute meaningfully to your school community. My additional Makaton and Sign Language certifications further underscore my commitment to inclusive communication strategies that support all students' learning potential.

Throughout my career, I have developed sophisticated curriculum adaptation skills, utilizing approaches that ensure every student can access and engage with educational content. My approach prioritizes individual student strengths, implementing personalized behavior modification and learning support techniques that promote both academic and social-emotional growth.

Good Shepherd School's reputation for inclusive, student-centered education deeply resonates with my professional philosophy. I am excited about the opportunity to bring my specialized skills and compassionate teaching approach to your team, contributing to a supportive and dynamic learning environment.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my qualifications and experience align with your school's educational goals.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
