Dear Hiring Manager

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Y5 kaiako / classroom teacher position at Twizel Area School, as advertised with reference #1HAqpR. With 18+ years of specialized experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to your dynamic learning environment.

My professional background is uniquely positioned to support diverse learners. As a registered teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and extensive experience supporting students with special educational needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, I am passionate about creating inclusive, adaptive learning experiences. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to accessible, supportive education.

Having worked extensively with curriculum adaptation and individualized learning strategies, I am confident in my ability to engage and support students across various learning profiles. My approach combines structured teaching methodologies with compassionate, student-centered practices that foster both academic and personal growth.

I am currently based in South Africa and am working closely with a licensed immigration advisor to ensure a smooth transition to New Zealand. I am available to relocate within six weeks of confirmation and am fully prepared to integrate into the New Zealand educational context, including embracing Te Reo Maori and bicultural educational principles.

My NZ Teaching Registration and comprehensive skill set align perfectly with Twizel Area School's holistic educational approach. I am enthusiastic about the opportunity to bring my expertise, passion, and international perspective to your teaching team.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to discussing how my background and skills can contribute to your school's learning community.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
