

Here's the professional cover letter for Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar:

[Date]

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Qualified ECE kaiako position at Treasure Hunt Montessori Preschool. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your dynamic early childhood learning environment.

My extensive background in inclusive education, particularly supporting students with diverse learning needs, aligns perfectly with the holistic approach of Montessori education. Throughout my career, I have developed comprehensive strategies for working with children with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, ensuring each child receives personalized, compassionate support to reach their full potential.

As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring not only professional qualifications but also specialized certifications in communication support, including Makaton and Sign Language. These skills enable me to create truly inclusive learning spaces where every child can communicate and engage meaningfully.

My teaching philosophy centres on recognizing each child's unique strengths, adapting curriculum and learning approaches to support individual development. I am passionate about creating nurturing, stimulating environments that encourage curiosity, independence, and joy in learning - core principles that resonate deeply with Montessori educational methodology.

I am particularly drawn to Treasure Hunt Montessori Preschool's commitment to holistic child development and would be thrilled to contribute my skills and experience to your exceptional team.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to discussing how my background can support your educational goals.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
