

Here's the cover letter for Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar:

Dear Principal and Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Y5-6 teaching position at Makauri School. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your school's learning environment.

My professional journey has been deeply committed to inclusive education, with a particular focus on supporting students with diverse learning needs. Throughout my career, I have successfully worked with students diagnosed with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, developing individualized learning strategies that promote academic and social growth. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications have further enhanced my ability to communicate effectively with students who have varied communication requirements.

Holding a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, I bring a comprehensive understanding of curriculum adaptation and developmental learning principles. My approach centers on creating supportive, engaging classroom environments where every student can thrive. I am particularly skilled in behaviour modification techniques and designing inclusive learning experiences that accommodate different learning styles and abilities.

Makauri School's reputation for educational excellence and commitment to student-centered learning aligns perfectly with my professional philosophy. I am passionate about nurturing young learners' potential and believe in creating classroom spaces that are both academically rigorous and emotionally supportive.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience could contribute to your school's educational goals. Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,
