Dear Principal and Hiring Committee,

I am writing to apply for the Scale A classroom teacher position at Marshall Laing School, with great enthusiasm and a genuine passion for inclusive education. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to contribute meaningfully to your school's learning environment.

My professional background is specifically aligned with supporting diverse learning needs. Throughout my career, I have developed extensive expertise in working with students with special educational requirements, including autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My comprehensive understanding of curriculum adaptation and behavior modification strategies enables me to create supportive, engaging learning experiences for all students.

As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I am fully qualified and committed to delivering high-quality, inclusive educational experiences. My additional certifications in Makaton and Sign Language further demonstrate my dedication to ensuring every student can access and participate in learning.

Marshall Laing School's reputation for supporting individual student potential resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am particularly excited about the opportunity to bring my specialized skills in learning support and curriculum differentiation to your senior school classroom.

My multilingual background and international teaching experience provide me with a unique perspective on creating adaptive, responsive learning environments. I am passionate about helping students develop not just academic skills, but also confidence, independence, and social capabilities.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my experience and skills could contribute to your school's educational goals. Thank you for considering my application.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
