

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Principal and Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Y2-3 classroom teacher position at Temuka Primary School for the 2026 academic year. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to contribute meaningfully to your school's inclusive learning environment.

My professional background uniquely positions me to support diverse learners. Having worked extensively with students with special educational needs--including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities--I have developed robust skills in curriculum adaptation, individualized learning strategies, and inclusive educational practices. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to accessible, responsive teaching.

As a registered teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring a comprehensive understanding of early childhood development and pedagogical best practices. My approach combines structured learning with compassionate, student-centered instruction, ensuring each child can reach their full potential. My experience in behavior modification and learning support allows me to create supportive, engaging classroom environments where all students can thrive.

Temuka Primary School's reputation for educational excellence and commitment to inclusive learning strongly resonates with my professional philosophy. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise and passion to your talented teaching team.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience align with your school's vision and the specific needs of your Y2-3 classroom.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
