Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Learning Support Coordinator and Classroom Release Teacher position at Bankwood School. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to contribute meaningfully to your inclusive educational environment.

My extensive background in supporting students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, aligns perfectly with the holistic approach I understand Bankwood School values. As a fully registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring not only professional qualifications but also a deep commitment to inclusive, adaptive education.

My specialized skills include curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and comprehensive learning support strategies. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to accessible, supportive learning environments for all students. I am currently based in South Africa and am working closely with a licensed immigration advisor to ensure a smooth transition, with the ability to relocate within six weeks of offer.

The opportunity to serve as both a learning support coordinator and classroom release teacher is particularly exciting. I am passionate about creating supportive, engaging learning experiences that empower students to reach their full potential. My multicultural background and language skills (English and Afrikaans) will also enable me to contribute to a diverse, inclusive school community.

I am eager to discuss how my experience and dedication can support Bankwood School's educational mission. Thank you for considering my application.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
