

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my keen interest in the Kaiako - Maori Medium Y1-6 position at Haeata Community Campus. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments that empower every tamariki to thrive.

My professional journey has been deeply rooted in supporting diverse learners, particularly students with special educational needs. Throughout my career, I have developed extensive expertise in working with children with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My approach focuses on individualized curriculum adaptation, positive behavior modification, and fostering an environment of genuine inclusion and respect.

Holding a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, I bring both academic qualification and practical experience to this role. My additional certifications in Makaton and Sign Language (Modules 1 & 2) further demonstrate my commitment to accessible, communicative learning strategies for all students.

Haeata Community Campus's reputation for innovative and inclusive education strongly resonates with my professional philosophy. I am particularly excited about the opportunity to contribute to a Maori Medium learning environment, where cultural responsiveness and individual potential are celebrated.

My multilingual background and extensive experience in adaptive teaching methodologies position me as an ideal candidate who can support diverse learning needs while maintaining high educational standards.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience align with your school's vision and the specific requirements of this role.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
