Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Learning Support Co-ordinator position at Cromwell College. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive learning environments that support every student's unique potential.

My professional background is specifically aligned with the critical needs of diverse learners. Throughout my career, I have developed extensive expertise in supporting students with a range of special educational needs, including Autism, Down Syndrome, ADHD, and Intellectual Disabilities. My holistic approach combines specialized teaching strategies, comprehensive curriculum adaptation, and individualized behavior modification techniques to ensure each student can thrive academically and socially.

As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring not only academic qualifications but also practical, hands-on experience in inclusive education. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to communication accessibility and ensuring all students can fully participate in their learning journey.

Cromwell College's reputation for supporting diverse learners resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills, experience, and genuine passion for inclusive education to your school community. My multilingual background and extensive experience in learning support make me well-positioned to support your students' educational needs.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience can contribute to Cromwell College's inclusive education approach. Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
