

Here's the cover letter based on the provided details:

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my keen interest in the Release Teacher position at Halswell Residential College. With 18+ years of extensive experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to contribute meaningfully to your school's inclusive learning environment.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting students with diverse learning needs, particularly those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education (Foundation Phase) and current NZ Teaching Registration, combined with specialized certifications in Makaton and Sign Language, have equipped me with comprehensive skills to create adaptive and supportive learning experiences.

Throughout my career, I have developed a robust approach to curriculum adaptation and behavior modification, consistently achieving positive outcomes for students with special educational needs. My expertise lies in designing personalized learning strategies that promote individual growth, independence, and social integration.

Halswell Residential College's commitment to inclusive education resonates strongly with my professional philosophy. I am passionate about creating learning environments where every student can thrive, regardless of their unique challenges. My multilingual background and extensive experience in specialized education make me an ideal candidate for this role.

I am excited about the opportunity to bring my skills, enthusiasm, and dedication to your team. I would welcome the chance to discuss how my background aligns with Halswell Residential College's educational objectives.

Thank you for considering my application.

Kind regards,
